Notice Regarding Reports in the Media

There was some media coverage regarding the integration discussions between Honda Motor Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "Honda") and our company, stating that our company has withdrawn the basic agreement for the merger with Honda, but this matter has not been announced by our company.

Based on the memorandum of understanding signed on December 23 last year, Honda and our company are in the stage of advancing various discussions, including the contents of the report, and we plan to establish a direction and make an announcement around mid-February.
